

South and South East Asia Security Research Centre Notes (SSEASRC)

University of Buckingham

Submission Guidelines

SSEASRC Publishing Opportunities

We invite early career scholars, practitioners, and academics to provide their individual, unique, and balanced perspectives on current and emerging security threats in the South and South East Asia region.

We accept a range of contributions from longer Research Note between 3000-12000 words to shorter Commentary between 500-700 words, excluding references. The research note and commentary should provide an assessment and analysis of the relevant security problem affecting the region. These can be on a variety of contemporary security issues in South and South East Asia region, including but not limited to:

- Collective security
- Hybrid threats
- Terrorism
- Counter-terrorism
- Cyber security
- Intelligence
- Conventional warfare
- Unconventional warfare
- Nuclear weapons
- Maritime security
- Geopolitics
- Geoeconomics
- Biopolitics
- Borders and borderlands
- Economic security
- Human security
- Surveillance
- Environmental security
- Outerspace

Submission Guidelines

Format: The Research Note is accepted only as a Microsoft Word file (.docx) and should not exceed 12000 words, excluding references. It is preferable to use Helvetica fonts (12-point size) with a line spacing of 1.15 or 1.5. References should be in the form of footnotes, and the text must include a brief abstract of 150-250 words but should not be accompanied by a bibliography at the end. Quotations should be presented with double quotation marks except in longer quotations of over 30 words.

The Commentary is accepted only as a Microsoft Word file (.docx) and should not exceed 700 words, excluding references. It is preferable to use Helvetica fonts (12-point size) with a line spacing of 1.15 or 1.5. References should be in the form of footnotes but should not be accompanied by a bibliography at the end. Quotations should be presented with double quotation marks except in longer quotations of over 30 words.

Citation system: The system used for the footnotes is based on the Chicago Manual of Style with slight and consistent modifications for clarity. It must be noted that the use of foreign language sources should include the English translation of the original title in brackets. Examples of footnote referencing are provided below. Each initial reference of a source should be in full, while the following references of the same source should be presented in a shortened version; avoid using p. and pp. for page(s) as well as abbreviations such as op. cit. and ibid.

Inquiries: Please submit your proposals or any inquiries to muhammad.tahirmahmoo@buckingham.ac.uk and tanvi.pate@buckingham.ac.uk

FOOTNOTE REFERENCES

Book (one to three authors)

First citation: Alan Gamlen, Human Geopolitics: States, Emigrants and the Rise of Diaspora Institutions (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2019), 311-17.

Following citations: Gamlen, Human Geopolitics, 287-88.

Book (four or more authors)

First citation: Anthony Best et al., International History of the Twentieth Century and Beyond, 2nd edn (London: Routledge, 2008), 428-31.

Following citations: Best et al., International History, 271-74.

Book (editor/s or translator)

First citation: Kimberely L. Thachuk and Rollie Lal, eds, Terrorist Criminal Enterprises: Financing Terrorism through Organized Crime (Santa Barbara, CA: Praeger, 2018)

Following citations: Kimberley et. al., Terrorist Criminal Enterprises, 103.

First Citation: Richmond Lattimore, trans., The Iliad of Homer (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1974), 56-59.

Following citations: Lattimore, The Illiad, 197.

Chapter in book

First citation: Michael Sheehan, "Military Security", in Contemporary Security Studies, 4th edn, ed. Alan Collins (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2016), 185-199

(191).

Following citations: Sheehan, "Military Security", 187-89.

Journal article

First Citation: Giangiuseppe Pili, "Toward a Philosophical Definition of Intelligence", The International Journal of Intelligence, Security, and Public Affairs 20:2 (2019), 162-190 (177-79).

Following citations: Pili, "Philosophical Definition", 184-185.

Newspaper-magazine articles (printed)

First citation: Michael Schwitz, "Secret unit in Russia aims to jolt Europe", The New York Times, 9 October 2019, A1.

Following citations: Schwitz, "Secret unit", A1.

First citation: "China is misreading the politics of Western anger", The Economist, 20 October 2019, 61-64.

Following citations: "China is misreading", 63.

Newspaper-magazine articles (electronic)

First citation: Paul Karp, "Cybersecurity giant Symantec plays down unreported breach of test data", The Guardian, 13 June 2019, <https://www.theguardian.com/technology/2019/jun/14/cybersecurity-giant-symantec-plays-down-unreported-breach-of-test-data>.

Following citations: Karp, "Cybersecurity giant Symantec".

Website

First citation: Melissa Heikkila, "German defence minister hits back at Macron's NATO criticism", Politico, 17 November 2019, <https://www.politico.eu/article/annegret-kramp-karrenbauer-emmanuel-macron-german-defense-minister-hits-back-nato-criticism/>.

Following citations: Heikkila, "German defence minister".